High Frequency Sets

MIDDLE PNR

- HIGH PNR (7 Possessions)
 - Go to option after initial action is blown up. Usually with Khalil ball handling, otherwise Vinales.
 - Usually screener is Phil Jordan or Elijah Lufire but Khalil will sometimes mismatch hunt with weaker defenders.
- SPAIN (5 Possessions)
 - Most often with Khalil Ahmad and Kyle Vinales but Keonte Kennedy, Munis Tutu, and Nathan Cayo are occasionally involved
 - A couple different entries. RAM → SPAIN, UCLA → SPAIN
- IVERSON OPTION (4 Possessions)
 - Screen for Khalil to receive the ball on the wing into an empty side PNR, or will flow into a middle PNR with Vinales
 - If Khalil rejects the initial IVERSON screen → flows into PEJA
- RAM HAMMER (3 Possessions)
- SWING STEP UP (3 Possessions)
 - Standard Entry: Wing DHO → Reversal → Step Up.
- IVERSON (1 Possession)

POST ISOLATION (CAYO)

- MISMATCH (7 Possessions)
 - Low post entry when Cayo has a favourable matchup. Will break off set plays when this occurs.
 - Does not appear to have consistent designed sets to achieve this, more-so a by product of other actions or cross matches in transition. But this is still a go to look for them.
- INVERTED PNR (1 Possession)
 - Cayo ball handling with Ahmad screening

EARLY OFFENSE

- DRAG (4 Possessions)
- 77 (4 Possessions)

ATO's

- STAGGER BACKDOOR (2 Possessions)
 - Like to run this set late in Target Time when Khalil Ahmad is being denied.
 - Used twice in the last 10 games, both times were when Niagara was within 1 - 2 possessions of target score.
- IVERSON ELEVATOR (1 Possession)

Most Frequent Forms Of Scoring

#1 MIDDLE PNR

- MIDDLE PNR actions (SPAIN, SWING, etc..) are their most consistent scoring looks as they are ran the most often. Khalil Ahmad and Kyle Vinales are the two primary threats out of these actions.
- In the last 10 games these actions have scored 21 points.

#2 NATHAN CAYO POST ISO

- 8 points on 8 possessions in the past 10 games.

#3 PICK 6's

- 8 points on 4 possessions in the past 10 games.
- Khalil Ahmad and Keonte Kennedy pressuring the ball handler near half court leading to a steal and layup/dunk.

#4 SECOND CHANCE POINTS

- Much of the scoring outside of the main 4 guys (Ahmad, Vinales, Cayo and Kennedy) is off second chance points and scrambles.
- Guys like Phil Jordan, Gorjok Gak, Munis Tutu get their shots from here.

EXTRA OBSERVATIONS

- Khalil Ahmad likes to try and bait out a 3 point foul when being intentionally fouled to send the game into Target Time. This has worked once in the last 10 games resulting in 3 free throws.
